1.2 Summary

1.2.1 The Farm Debt Mediation Act (FDMA) received Royal Assent on April 25, 1997 and came into force on April 1, 1998. The FDMS was established to deliver the FDMA. The service provides a streamlined process of mediation to assist insolvent farmers and their creditors to negotiate settlement arrangements, rather than have those disputes result in costly legal proceedings for all parties.

To apply for assistance under the FDMA, the applicant must be engaged in farming for commercial purposes and, must also be "insolvent", which is defined in article 6 of the FDMA as follows:

Only farmers:

- who are for any reason unable to meet their obligations as they generally become due; or
- who have ceased paying their current obligations in the ordinary course of business as they generally become due; or
- the aggregate of whose property is not, at a fair valuation, sufficient, or if disposed of at a fairly conducted sale under legal process would not be sufficient, to enable payment of all their obligations, due and accruing due.

Under the FDMA, farmers can apply for either:

- a stay of proceedings against the farmer by all the farmer's creditors, a review of the farmer's financial affairs, and mediation between the farmer and all the farmer's creditors for the purpose of assisting them to reach a mutually acceptable arrangement; or
- a review of the farmer's financial affairs, and mediation between the farmer and all the farmer's secured creditors for the purpose of assisting them to reach a mutually acceptable arrangement.

Applicants that meet the eligibility criteria are appointed a Financial Expert and a Mediator by the FDMS. The Financial Expert completes a financial review of the farming operation and develops a recovery plan in collaboration with the farmer. The Mediator organizes the mediation meeting, in consultation with the Financial Expert, which can either be in-person, virtual or a combination of both, to bring together the farmer and their creditors to negotiate an arrangement. The Mediator will document the agreed-upon terms reached during the mediation process and draft an arrangement to be signed by all parties.

You can find more information about the FDMS on AAFC web site:

<https://agriculture.canada.ca/en/programs/farm-debt-mediation-service>

1.2.2 One method of supply used by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada (AAFC) to satisfy the requirements of our programs is to invite suppliers (by way of a Request for Standing Offer (RFSO) to submit an offer for the provision of services during a specified period. With the completed RFSO process, AAFC is authorized to make call-ups against the resulting SO's detailing the exact level of services they wish to order at a particular time during the effective period of the SO, in accordance with the predetermined conditions.

A RFSO does not commit AAFC to authorize the utilization of an SO or to obtain services or issue a subsequent Contract to this effect.

A standing offer is not a contract and that the issuance of an SO and Call-up Authority does not oblige or commit Canada to procure or contract for any services listed in the SO. The Offeror understands and agrees that Canada has the right to procure the services specified in the SO by means of any other contract, SO or contracting method.

1.2.3 The purpose of this Request for Standing Offers (RFSO) is to select Offerors to enter into negotiations with AAFC to issue Departmental Individual Standing Offers (SO) to obtain the services described in the Statement of Work for Alberta.

The total budget for the SO will be approximately $ 1,381,250.00 based on a maximum of five (5) standing offers.

Services are required for a period of four (4) years, starting at date of issuance of standing offers.

1.3 Security Requirements

There are security requirements associated with the requirement of the Standing Offer. For additional information, see Part 6 - Security, Financial and Insurance Requirements, and Part 7 - Standing Offer and Resulting Contract Clauses. Technical enquiries that are of a proprietary nature must be clearly marked "proprietary" at each relevant item. Items identified as "proprietary" will be treated as such except where Canada determines that the enquiry is not of a proprietary nature. Canada may edit the question(s) or may request that offerors do so, so that the proprietary nature of the question(s) is eliminated, and the enquiry can be answered to all offerors. If at any point in the evaluation process it is found, whether by determination of invalidity of certifications, determination that offers are non-responsive or withdrawal of offers by Offerors, that there are no longer two (2) or more responsive offers with a valid certification, then all responsive offers will be eligible to be issued a standing offer. Canada may conduct the validation of Canadian content certifications at any time in the evaluation process including doing so concurrently with other steps.

4.1.1.1 Mandatory Technical Criteria

Each offer will be reviewed to determine whether it meets the mandatory requirements of the request for standing offer. Any element of the request for standing offer that is identified specifically with the words "must" or "shall" or "mandatory" is a mandatory requirement. The Mandatory evaluation criteria are described in Annex C Technical Evaluation Criteria.

4.1.1.2 Point Rated Technical Criteria

Each offer will be rated by assigning a score to the rated requirements, which are identified in the request for standing offer by the word "rated" or by reference to a score. The rated requirements are described in Annex C Technical Evaluation Criteria.

The Standing Offer Authority will have the right to ask for additional information to verify the Offeror's certifications. 7.8 Call-up Procedures

The acceptable offers will be ranked in descending order by score in the technical evaluation of the RFSO.

Each call-up will be issued on a rotational basis, with the first call-up issued to the first-ranked SO holder, the second call-up issued to the second-ranked SO holder, and so on.

The following list represents scenarios in which the rotation process may not be followed.

- a) Where the cost of traveling will justify it, a call-up could be issued to an Offeror with a resource who is located in closer proximity to where the services will be rendered.

b) In the event the applicant's choice to receive the services in one of two official languages prevents the next Offeror on the list from providing the services, the Project Authority will award the mandate to the next Offeror on the list who can meet the linguistic requirements.

c) To avoid any perceived or potential conflict of interest, if the Offeror's resource is already engaged to provide Mediation Services on a particular case, if the Offeror has multiple resources qualified to render service, they will be asked to provide a different resource. If the Offeror does not have additional qualified resources available, the Project Authority may award the call up to the next Offeror on the list.

In any of the above scenarios, where the next Offeror on the list is not selected, there will be no penalty to the Offeror. The Offeror who was skipped will be allocated the next available call up.

If an Offeror refuses work under a call-up, he maintains his ranking and must wait his turn to come back before being offered work under a subsequent call-up. If an Offeror does not provide confirmation of his availability in writing for the work within 24 hours of being offered, the Project Authority will consider the non-response as an unavailability/refusal.

If for reasons beyond its control, the Offeror is unable to provide the services he must advise the Project Authority of the reason. For the purposes of this clause, only the following reasons will be considered as beyond the control of the Offeror: death, sickness, maternity and parental leave.

Following three (3) refusals of mandate for other reasons than the ones listed in this clause, Canada may set aside the standing offer.

7.9 Call-up Instrument

The Work will be authorized or confirmed by the Identified User(s) using the duly completed forms or their equivalents as identified in paragraphs 2 and 3 below, or by using Canada acquisition cards (Visa or MasterCard) for low dollar value requirements.

ANNEX "A"

STATEMENT OF WORK

FDMS – FINANCIAL CONSULTING SERVICES

1. TITLE

The Farm Debt Mediation Service (FDMS) offers free financial counselling and mediation services to farmers who are having difficulties meeting their financial obligations. It is a voluntary, private and confidential service that brings farmers and their creditors together with a Mediator in a neutral forum to reach a mutually acceptable solution.

2. OBJECTIVE

The FDMS Administrator will assign a Financial Expert and a Mediator to work with the farmer through the mediation process. Confidentiality is extremely important to the quality and effectiveness of the service. Information obtained from the farmer and their creditor(s) is used for the sole purpose of mediation and is shared only among the parties involved in the mediation process.

The Financial Expert will conduct a site visit, inventory all the farmer's assets, create financial statements of the farming operation, develop a recovery plan for the purpose of reaching a financial arrangement between the farmer and their creditor(s), and attend mediation meeting(s).

When the farmer and their creditor(s) agree upon a solution, the Mediator will draw-up an arrangement.

3. BACKGROUND

The Farm Debt Mediation Act (FDMA) received Royal Assent on April 25, 1997 and came into force on April 1, 1998. The FDMS was established to deliver the FDMA. The service provides a streamlined process of mediation to assist insolvent farmers and their creditors to negotiate settlement arrangements, rather than have those disputes result in costly legal proceedings for all parties.

To apply for assistance under the FDMA, the applicant must be engaged in farming for commercial purposes and, must also be "insolvent", which is defined in article 6 of the FDMA as follows:

Only farmers:

- who are for any reason unable to meet their obligations as they generally become due; or
- who have ceased paying their current obligations in the ordinary course of business as they generally become due; or
- the aggregate of whose property is not, at a fair valuation, sufficient, or if disposed of at a fairly conducted sale under legal process would not be sufficient, to enable payment of all their obligations, due and accruing due.

Under the FDMA, farmers can apply for either:

- a stay of proceedings against the farmer by all the farmer's creditors, a review of the farmer's financial affairs, and mediation between the farmer and all the farmer's creditors for the purpose of assisting them to reach a mutually acceptable arrangement; or
- a review of the farmer's financial affairs, and mediation between the farmer and all the farmer's secured creditors for the purpose of assisting them to reach a mutually acceptable arrangement.

Applicants that meet the eligibility criteria are appointed a Financial Expert and a Mediator by the FDMS. The Financial Expert completes a financial review of the farming operation and develops a recovery plan in collaboration with the farmer. The Mediator organizes the mediation meeting, in consultation with the Financial Expert, which can either be in-person, virtual or a combination of both, to bring together the farmer and their creditors to negotiate an arrangement. The Mediator will document the agreed-upon terms reached during the mediation process and draft an arrangement to be signed by all parties.

5. APPLICABLE DOCUMENTS & REFERENCES

The following resources are qualified to provide services under the Standing Offer.

(list will be provided at Standing Offer award)

6. SCOPE OF WORK

The Financial Expert will begin their work on behalf of the FDMS once the initial notices are sent to the farmer and their creditors.

The Financial Expert visits the farm and meets with the farmer to verify eligibility. A report or email summarizing the farm visit and initial findings, if requested by the FDMS Administrator, must be submitted to the FDMS office. The Financial Expert proceeds with a comprehensive examination of the farmer's financial situation. This examination involves gathering financial data from creditors and preparing a financial statement. The information utilized for the review may include the farmer's business records, tax returns, account balances from creditors and information on price from real estate agents, auctions and machinery dealerships.

The Financial Expert will assist the farmer in developing a recovery plan that details the proposed steps the farmer will take to overcome their current financial challenges. The plan will include projections to validate its feasibility.

The Financial Expert has the duty to report any newly identified creditors so that the FDMS can notify them as required under the FDMA. The Financial Expert will work jointly with the Mediator to determine a date, time and location for the mediation meeting. The Financial Expert will reach out to all creditors to confirm their attendance (in-person or virtual) at the meeting and will provide a revised creditor list to the FDMS.

Although this is not encouraged, section 9(3) of the FDMA provides a farmer the right to request that the recovery plan be prepared by a person of their own choice. If a qualified person chosen by the farmer is approved by the administrator, a sole source contract will be issued outlining the requirements and cost.

6.1. TASKS
