AMENDMENT 003 IS RAISED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS:

Questions

- 1) A supplier for D-80-001-002/SF-001 cannot be found, can we deviate to CLOTH, PLAIN WEAVE, NYLON, CAMO GREEN 483, WATER REPELENT/BACK COATED, IAW MIL-DTL-43128D, TYPE IV, CLASS 1? This was approved on another Tent within the last few years.
- 2) The metal Peg Dwg.# DDDS000947 has been cancelled without replacement; however, it is still referenced in the Drawing 8790069 and Data List DL-8790069-1 We want to make sure Peg Dwg.# DDDS000947 is no longer required.
- 3) This tent has a small Translucent Window, made of IAW D-80-001-065/SF-001. Can we deviate to a commercially available clear PVC with a reinforcement scrim? The thread called up on the drawings is a Size 25 (Tex135) which is excessive (too heavy) when sewn on a light fabric like a nylon taffeta. The Size 25 (Tex135) can have a negative impact on the appearance and quality of product and can cause dimensional variances. The heaviest thread we would recommend is Size 36 (Tex90) We are requesting a deviation to this thread.
- 4) Dwg.# 8790077 Item 6 calls out a Tab Grommet, Sewable, Size 38mm x 75mm x 10mm Dia. hole. We cannot find this anywhere on line. Does DND have a vendor name, or can we deviate to the one that is available from multiple sources. Grommet tab available is a bit larger, see picture below.

Answers

- 1) Yes, this will be acceptable.
- 2) The specific peg is not a requirement for the Latrine tent, there are multiple other tent pegs that continue to be used with this tent.
- 3) In accordance with 2.1.1 Evaluation Procedures for Equivalent Products and 2.1.2 Equivalency of Equipment of the RFP, we are willing to accept equivalent parts that meet form, fit and function of the originally listed part numbers.
- 4) In accordance with 2.1.1 Evaluation Procedures for Equivalent Products and 2.1.2 Equivalency of Equipment of the RFP, we are willing to accept equivalent parts that meet form, fit and function of the originally listed part numbers..

All other terms and conditions remain unchanged
