Amendment 003 is raised to:

1. Answer question(s) from Industry:

Question: I'm reaching out to you this afternoon in regards to shipping and storage containers. I'm wondering if your looking for something made out of metal or wood. I'm trying to find some drawings or if you have any measurements for what is required if you could please send them over to me that would be greatly appreciated.

Response: The part number(s) being requested belong to the Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM). The Department of National Defence does not own nor have access to the part number specifications or drawings belonging to the OEM. If an equivalent product is being offered, it is the responsibility of the bidder to obtain the specifications and provide to Canada the justification on how their product is equivalent to the item of supply.

All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.
