This requirement is for the Canadian Accessibility Standards Organization (CASDO), operating as Accessibility Standards Canada (ASC)

One of the challenges facing ASC is the transition from a start-up organization to a mature organization. One of the key requirements to make this transition is to put in place robust procedures in certain areas and coaching in others. ASC senior managers have various opportunities to enhance their programs and policies and will require consulting services in order to deliver these projects.

As such, ASC is seeking consulting services on various projects across the organization to lead transformation or developmental projects for ASC management.
