Question # 38

- A: We have three partners who have a history of over 20 years of contracts with the federal government each with their own company recently formed a newly incorporated company. The three partners would like to operate under the newly formed company. Is it possible for our new company to be qualified for TBIPS if sponsored by another company and by using the extensive government contract experience of the partners?
- B: We would like to qualify under Tier 1 & 2 by combining the 3 years of revenue accumulated by the three consultants over the past 5 years.
- C: Are we able to apply for TBIPS even if the new company has not been in business for the required 2 years by using the references and contract history of the 3 partners.
