

Q1: I wanted to reach out regarding the RFSA from the Buy and Sell portal for Independent Digital Forensic Analysts (solicitation # 1000353120) to better understand the eligibility to participate. EnerTech is a Recruitment and Search company that will be able to source the candidates you need for this position. We hold security clearance at the Reliability level. The RFSA indicates that you are looking for CV submission for resources that fit the Forensic Analyst position requirements. Is this tender open to receiving these submissions from a company like EnerTech? Please let me know.

A1: CRA will be evaluating proposals in accordance with the mandatory criteria established for this RFSA and firms and/or individuals shall decide themselves whether to submit proposals accordingly. Please also refer to the RFSA Amendment# 001.

Q2: I wanted to confirm the closing date is accurate?

A2: Yes. The solicitation closing date is accurate. The closing date is November 30, 2025. At any time before November 30, 2025, an individual or firm can submit bids to the RFSA.
